Maryland Linguistics PhD Roadmap

Name: _____

Major advisor(s): _____

Date updated: _____

Use the following table to track your progress towards the PhD. Each row represents one formal requirement, each column one semester of the 5 years of the program. Grey cells represent times at which the requirements become overdue. You should update the graduate director on your enrollment and progress towards the degree.

	1F	1S	2F	2S	3F	3S	4F	4S	5F	5S
6 core courses See http://ling.umd.edu/graduate/courseofstudy/#sequences
Sequence #1 (theoretical) Number and name:
Sequence #2 (any subfield) Number and name:
Core course #5 Number and name:
Core course #6 Number and name:
Minimum of 3 courses at 800-level
800-level course #1 Number and name:
800-level course #2 Number and name:
800-level course #3 Number and name:
((800-level course #4)) Number and name:
2 courses in a minor area (specify area)
Minor area course #1 Number and name:
Minor area course #2 Number and name:
2 Qualifying Papers
Qualifying paper #1 (major) LING888 (formerly 895) (Total of 6 credits; can be divided over multiple semesters) Area:
Qualifying paper #2 (minor) (formerly LING896) Area:
Dissertation
Total of 12 credits of LING 899 (list numbers of credits in boxes)
Dissertation										